Establishment of the National Protected Area (PA) framework

The National Framework for Protected Area has been established to provide, among others, a standard definition for protected areas and the coordination structure for protected areas in Malaysia.