Fear of tiger attack sees school reopening deferred

GUA MUSANG: The reopening of SK Bihai here has been postponed following the threat of tiger attacks in nearby areas. The school, which was slated to begin its 2021/2022 Session 3 yesterday, had instead opted to continue its online lessons. In a circular issued by the Gua Musang Education Office, it stated that online classrooms would continue until the Kelantan Wildlife and National Parks Department could resolve the danger and give a safety assurance. The school teachers were required to report for duty and prepare their online modules. Last Friday, it was discovered that a male tiger had been on the prowl after mauling and killing an Orang Asli man. The night before, the tiger had pounced on several villagers at Kampung Sau near Pos Bihai.
