POWER SUPPLY TO 14 GAMBLING DENS CUT

LABUAN: Labuan police and Sabah Electricity Sdn Bhd (SESB) have cut electricity supply to 14 premises found to be carrying out illegal gambling activities. Labuan police chief Supt Ahmad Jawila said of the total, five were in the town centre and the remaining in the outskirts. He said the cooperation (with SESB) was part of ongoing operations by the police to stamp out illegal gambling activities throughout the duty-free island. "We will not hesitate to cut off power supply to any premises that is being used for illegal gambling activities. "With the move, we are optimistic illegal activities will be crippled." He also called upon the public to provide information on illegal gambling activities in their areas. Ahmad said the power cuts are made under Section 21A(1) of the Common Gaming Houses Act 1953. – Bernama
